INDEX

The names of contributors are printed in SMALL CAPITALS; subjects treated, in ordinary type; titles of books reviewed, in italics.

Accidents from college football, 415
Acton library, The, 106
Admission to college, Chemistry for, 85
Age of graduation at Amherst College (1830–1900), 525
ALDRICH, GEORGE I.—The time limit of secondary education, 438
American college, The, 11
American education, Impressions of, 217
American impressions, Mr. Sadler's, 321
American teacher, The, 146
Amherst College, Age of graduation at, 525
Appointing teachers, San Francisco's system of, 76

BELLEI, GIUSEPPE.—An hour's work done by school children, 364
BALLIET, THOMAS M.—The time limit of secondary education, 433
Beginnings in compulsory education, 240
BLACKALL, W. W.—The Rhodes scholarships, 82
Boys go to college, Why, 308
BURK, FREDERIC.—California normal schools, 314; Compayré's (Gabriel) Development of the child in later infancy, 315; San Francisco's system of appointing teachers, 76
BURTON, H. E.—How to make classical study interesting, 49
BUTLER, ELIZA R.—West's (Willis Mason) Ancient history, 318
BUTLER, NICHOLAS MURRAY.—The American college, 11

California normal schools, 314
CARSS, ELIZABETH.—Hodge's (C. F.) Nature study and life, 208
Catalogs, Uniformity in college, 206
Chemistry for admission to college, 85
Chicago, Proposed legislation for, 214
Children (school) An hour's work done by, 364
China, The educational edicts of 1901 in, 67
Civil-service reform principles in education, 348
Classical study interesting, How to make, 49
COAR, JOHN F.—The study of modern languages and literatures, 39
Co-education in the United States, 109
College, The American, 11; Chemistry for admission to, 85; Existing relations between school and, 182; Why boys go to, 308
College catalogs, Uniformity in, 206
College course, The objections to a shorter, 21
College football, Accidents from, 415
COMPAYRÉ, GABRIEL.—Reform in secondary education in France, 130; Development of the child in later infancy, 315
Compulsory education, Beginnings in, 240
Conflicting ideals in the teaching of English, 275
Control in New York State, Dual educational, 322
Corbin's (John) An American at Oxford, 90
Correlation of mathematics, The, 249
Cost of education, The, 490
Course, The objections to a shorter college, 21; The secondary-school, 464
COY, E. W.—Emerson E. White, 200

DE GARMO, CHARLES.—Differentiation in the higher education of women, 341
DEXTER, EDWIN G.—Accidents from college football, 415; Training for the learned professions, 28; Uniformity in college catalogs, 206
DEWEY, JOHN.—The psychological

48644

and the logical in teaching geometry, 386
Differentiation in the higher education of women, 341
Discussions, 76, 206, 308, 525
DODGE, RICHARD E.—Tarr's (Ralph Stockton) Physical geography of New York State, 538
DRAPER, ANDREW S.—Co-education in the United States, 109
Dual educational control in New York State, 322

Edicts (educational) of 1901, in China, 67
Education, Beginnings in compulsory, 240; Civil-service reform principles in, 348; The cost of, 490; Impressions of American, 217; Improvement of secondary, 469; The time limit of secondary, 433, 438; Reform (in France) in secondary, 130; the second year (in the Philippines), of, 232; (moral) in the public schools, 325; of women, Differentation in the higher, 341
Educational control in New York State, Dual, 322; Edicts of 1901 in China, 67; philanthropy, Expenditures in, 483
Educators I have known, 289, 400, 508
Elementary (public) schools of Rome, 356; schooling, Shortening the period of, 168
ELIOT CHARLES W.—The cost of education, 490; Improvement of secondary education, 469
English, Conflicting ideals in the teaching of, 275
Existing relations between school and college, 182
Expenditures for public schools, 475; in educational philanthropy, 483

FARRAND, WILSON.—Existing relations between school and college, 182
FAUNCE, W. H. P.—Moral education in the public schools, 325
Findlay's (J. J.) Principles of class teaching, 93
Football, 61; Accidents from, 415
France, Reform in secondary education in, 130

Geometry, The psychological and the logical in teaching, 386
GOODWIN, EDWARD J.—The objections to a shorter college course, 21
Graduate studies, The relation of philosophy to, 265
Graduation at Amherst College (1830-1900), Age of, 525
Greek at Oxford, 102
GREENWOOD, JAMES M.—Henderson's (C. Hanford) Education and the larger life, 97; Smith's (Joseph Warren) Training for citizenship, 211; Some educators I have known, 289, 400, 508

HAMLIN, A. D. F.—Wheelwright's (Edmund M.) School architecture, 207
HANSCOM, ELIZABETH DEERING.—Influence of society on the college, 527
HANUS, PAUL H.—A six-year high-school program, 455
HARRIS, GEORGE.—Age of graduation at Amherst College (1830-1900), 525
HENDERSON ERNEST N.—Findlay's (J. J.) Principles of class teaching, 93
Henderson's (C. Hanford) Education and the larger life, 97
HIBBEN, JOHN G.—The relation of philosophy to graduate studies, 265
Higher education of women, Differentiation in the, 341
High-school program, A six-year, 455
Hodge's (C. F.) Nature study and life, 208
Hour's work done by school children, 364
How to make classical study interesting, 49

Ideals in the teaching of English, Conflicting, 275
Impressions, of American education, 217; Mr. Sadler's American, 321
Improvement of secondary education, 469
Influence of society on the college, 527
Interesting, How to make classical study, 49

JACKMAN, WILBUR S.—The correlation of mathematics, 249

KENNEDY, JOSEPH.—Football, 61
KEYSER, C. J.—Mellor's (J. W.)

Higher mathematics for students of chemistry and physics, 429

Languages and literatures, The study of modern, 39
Larned's (J. N.) Printer of right and wrong, 430
Learned professions, Training for the, 28
Legislation for Chicago, Proposed, 214
LEWIS, O. F.—Why boys go to college, 308
Library, The Acton, 106
Limit of secondary education, The time, 433, 438
LINCOLN, CHARLES J.—The secondary-school course, 464
Literatures, The study of modern languages and, 39
Logical in teaching geometry, The psychological and the, 386

Married women as teachers, 213
Mathematics, The correlation of, 249
MAXWELL, WILLIAM H.—The American teacher, 146
MEAD, W. E.—Conflicting ideals in the teaching of English, 275
Mellor's (J. W.) Higher mathematics for students of chemistry and physics, 429
MILLER, EDMUND H.—Chemistry for admission to college, 85
Modern languages and literatures, The study of, 39
Moral education in the public schools, 325

NASH, FREDERICK W.—The second year of education in the Philippines, 232
New York State, Dual educational control in, 322
Normal schools, California, 314
Notes and news, 102, 213, 321

Objections to a shorter college course, 21
Oxford, Greek at, 102

PERRIN, JOHN W.—Beginnings in compulsory education, 240
Philanthropy (educational), Expenditures in, 483
Philippines, Second year of education in the, 232
Philosophy to graduate studies, The relation of, 265
Professions, Training for the learned, 28
Proposed legislation for Chicago, 214
PRINCE, JOHN T.—The Sunday-school problem, 494
Principles in education, Civil-service reform, 348
Program, A six-year high-school, 455
Psychological and the logical in teaching geometry, 386
Public elementary schools of Rome, 356
Public schools, Expenditures for, 475, Moral education in the, 325

REID, WHITELAW.—The strength of the republic, 1
REIGART, JOHN F.—Public elementary schools of Rome, 356
Reformed civil-service principles in education, 348
Reform in secondary education in France, 130
Relation of philosophy to graduate studies, The, 265
Relations between school and college, Existing, 182
Republic, The strength of the, 1
Reviews, 90, 207, 315, 429, 528
Rhodes scholarships, The, 82
Rollins' (Frank) School administration in municipal government, 582
Rome, Public elementary schools of, 356

SADLER, MICHAEL E.—Impressions of American education, 217; his American impressions, 321
SALMON, LUCY M.—Civil-service reform principles in education, 348
Sanford's (Fernando) Elements of physics, 431
San Francisco's system of appointing teachers, 76
Scholarships, The Rhodes, 82
Schooling (elementary) Shortening the period of, 168
School and college, Existing relations between, 182
School children, An hour's work done by, 364
School (Sunday) problem, 494
Schools, California normal, 314; Expenditures for public, 475; Moral education in the public, 325; Rome public elementary, 356

SEAVER, EDWIN P.—Expenditures for public schools, 475
Secondary education, Improvement of, 469; Reform (in France), 130; Time limit of, 433; 438
Secondary-school course, The, 464
Second year of education in the Philippines, The, 232
SHELDON, W. H.—Larned's (J. N.) Primer of right and wrong, 430
Shortening the period of elementary schooling, 168
Shorter college course, Objections to a, 21
SITES, C. M. LACEY.—The educational edicts of 1901 in China, 67
Six-year high-school program, A, 455
Smith's (Joseph Warren) Training for citizenship, 211
Society on the college, Influence of, 527
SOLDAN, F. LOUIS.—Shortening the period of elementary schooling, 168
STODDARD, FRANCIS HOVEY.—Corbin's (John) An American at Oxford, 90
Strength of the republic, 1
Study interesting, How to make classical, 49
Studies (graduate), The relation of philosophy to, 265
Study of modern languages and literatures, 39
Sunday-school problem, The, 494
System (San Francisco's) of appointing teachers, 76

Tarr's (Ralph Stockton) Physical geography of New York State, 538
Teaching geometry, The psychological and the logical in, 386
Teaching of English, Conflicting ideals in the, 275
Teacher, The American, 146
Teachers, Married women as, 213; San Francisco's system of appointing, 76
Time limit of secondary education, 433 438
Training for the learned professions, 28
TUFTS, F. L.—Sanford's (Fernando) Elements of physics, 431

Uniformity in college catalogs, 206
United States, Co-education in the, 109

West's (Willis Mason) Ancient history, 318
Wheelwright's (Edmund M.) School architecture, 207
White (Emerson E.),, 200
Why boys go to college, 308
Women, Differentiation in the higher education of, 341
Women, Married, as teachers, 213
WOODS, ROBERT A.—Expenditures in educational philanthropy, 483
Work done by school children, An hour's, 364